LAZARD HIRES CHRIS MILLER AS MANAGING DIRECTOR, POWER, ENERGY & INFRASTRUCTURE ADVISORY

NEW YORK, February 19, 2025 – Lazard, Inc. (NYSE: LAZ) today announced that Chris Miller joined the firm as a Managing Director within the Power, Energy & Infrastructure Advisory business, based in Houston. Within his role, Chris will advise clients in the Energy industry, focused on Oil & Gas. This appointment demonstrates Lazard's successful global recruiting efforts as the firm continues to execute its long-term growth strategy.

"Chris brings a wealth of expertise and a proven track record of success in the energy sector. His strategic insights and deep relationships will be invaluable to our Power, Energy & Infrastructure franchise as we continue to deliver exceptional advisory services to our clients in the ever-evolving energy landscape," said George Bilicic, Global Head of Power, Energy & Infrastructure at Lazard. "As energy sector continues to experience significant disruption, Chris' experience will be crucial in helping our clients navigate these complexities and seize emerging opportunities."

Prior to joining Lazard, Chris was a Managing Director and Vice Chairman of Energy Investment Banking at Citigroup. Prior to this, Chris spent 13 years as an investment banker at Lehman Brothers, as well as serving as a banking officer at First Interstate Bank in Houston and beginning his career as an Analyst at H.D. Vest Investment Services.

Chris currently serves on the Advisory Committee of the Spindletop Energy Investment Fund at Southern Methodist University and the Board of Directors for Strake Jesuit College Preparatory.
